

DATE	Likes	Retweets	Comments	Tweet
3/13/2021	73,000	7,829	2,332	 Elon Musk @elonmusk · Mar 13, 2021 Origin of Doge Day Afternoon: The ancient Romans sacrificed a Dogecoin at the beginning of the Doge Days to appease the rage of Sirius, believing that the star was the cause of the hot, sultry weather. 2,332 7,829 73K
3/13/2021	166,900	19,200	6,949	 Elon Musk @elonmusk · Mar 13, 2021 Doge day afternoon 6,949 19.2K 166.9K Show this thread
3/13/2021	73,000	7,829	2,331	 Elon Musk @elonmusk · Mar 13, 2021 Origin of Doge Day Afternoon: The ancient Romans sacrificed a Dogecoin at the beginning of the Doge Days to appease the rage of Sirius, believing that the star was the cause of the hot, sultry weather. 2,331 7,829 73K
3/13/2022	228,300	19,000	8,727	 Elon Musk @elonmusk · Mar 13, 2021 Why are you so dogematic , they ask 8,727 19K 228.3K

Elon Musk @elonmusk · Mar 13, 2021

Origin of Doge Day Afternoon:
 The ancient Romans sacrificed a Dogecoin at the beginning of the Doge Days to appease the rage of Sirius, believing that the star was the cause of the hot, sultry weather.

2,332 7,829 73K

Elon Musk @elonmusk · Mar 13, 2021

Doge day afternoon

6,949 19.2K 166.9K

Show this thread

Elon Musk @elonmusk · Mar 13, 2021

Origin of Doge Day Afternoon:
 The ancient Romans sacrificed a Dogecoin at the beginning of the Doge Days to appease the rage of Sirius, believing that the star was the cause of the hot, sultry weather.

2,331 7,829 73K

Elon Musk @elonmusk · Mar 13, 2021

Why are you so dogematic, they ask

8,727 19K 228.3K